

ATWITTER IN THE CITY

Deva launches his next book

THE best selling author of books like Lashkar and Salim Must Die, Mukul Deva will once again interact with the city's book lovers. Deva's book Blowback, will be launched on Friday, at Rajputana Sheraton Hotel in association with Siyahi and HarperCollins India.

Deva wears the crown of India's premier military thriller writer with great skill and panache. In his latest, a warlord in the rugged tribal areas of Pakistan pushes his way to the crest of the jihadi wave, seeking to forge an alliance of terror groups to take on the American surge.

Facing the brunt of this deadly double game is the spirited Force 22 represented by Iqbal and Tanaz, just back from Pakistan after their search-and-destroy mission to eliminate Salim, who are catapulted into action as lethal intelligence operations begin to unfold.

The third in the military action thriller series from India's 'literary storm trooper', Blowback will keep you riveted with its tight plotting and heart-stopping pace.

—AH Correspondent