BOOKS

DELHI STOPOVER by Tulika Mehrotra

Lila, a struggling actress in LA, is visiting India after a bad break-up. Suddenly she finds herself drawn into the coveted modelling circuit in Delhi. A fresh face, she's much in demand and is signed up for a bikini shoot. In her struggle to drop a few sizes, she begins a punishing routine of exercising and crash dieting... and, not surprisingly, drugs. Will the Delhi stopover be her true calling?

Penguin 250

THE DEMON TRAPPERS FORETOLD by Jana Oliver

Riley has always known that Beck had a chequered history, but she is not prepared for what it actually means to be in love with a guy with so many dark secrets. Now that he's finally admitted to himself that he's in love with her too, there's no more hiding the truth about his past. And as it turns out, fending off a demon apocalypse is nothing compared to what's about to come.

Pan Macmillan 299

NW by Zadie Smith

Four Londoners Leah, Natalie, Felix and Nathan try to make adult lives outside of Caldwell, the council estate of their childhood. From private houses to public parks, their London is a complicated place, as beautiful as it is brutal, where the thoroughfares hide the back alleys and taking the high road can sometimes lead you to a dead end. Depicting the modern urban zone familiar to town dwellers everywhere NW is a devastating novel of encounters, mercurial and vital, like the city itself.

DOWN THE DARKEST ROAD by Tami Hoag

Four years after the disappearance of her 16-year-old daughter, Lauren Lawton is looking for a fresh start. The world has given her daughter up for dead;her husband ended his life in the aftermath.Lauren knows exactly who took her child,but there is not a shred of evidence against the man.When the suspect turns up in the same city,it seems as if history is about to repeat itself.

Hachette 399
